Coronavirus- COVID-19- Update

Wexler Packaging Products, as a sales and service organization that supplies packaging and labeling equipment as well supportive materials and parts to essential manufacturing and food companies, we want you to be reassured that our inventory is strong, and our team is in place to ship your orders, from Hatfield, PA.

Our vendors in the Switzerland and the UK have reassured us that their materials and parts are readily available as well. We have monthly ocean shipments arriving of equipment and materials. Parts come in as needed. Our outbound shipments are normal.

Our service team is available for technical support. Our products are not impacted by the Coronavirus COVID-19. Rental equipment is available. Please check your inventory to be sure you plan accordingly.

As a company we are taking necessary precautions per local CDC guidelines.

Employees have been instructed regarding proper hygiene, hand sanitization has increased when entering and leaving the premises. Employees have been asked to advise us if they are not feeling well or let us know if they were exposed to others not feeling well.

We are avoiding air travel and service/sales calls are by car. For technical issues we are available via FaceTime and telephone trouble shooting.

We will continue to monitor this policy and revisit when appropriate.

Your business is appreciated! We value our customers....

Thank you,

Pattie Wexler
President
